"Let us sing "Alleluia"... Let us sing as travellers sing on a journey; but keep on walking. Lighten your toil by singing, and never be idle. Sing, but keep on walking. Here praise is offered in hope, there by those who enjoy the reality; here by pilgrims in transit, there by those who have reached their homeland."

St Augustine

"Singing does more than keep our spirits up: it joins us in the celestial harmony of faithful pilgrimage. For we are all pilgrims on a journey, walking in love and hope and service."

This is an extract from Gordon Giles' Hymn Meditation in CMQ March 16.

Which hymn was he meditating on?
